

HAPPED hands result from two causes. Too much alkali in the soap, which draws the natural oil from the skin, leaving it harsh, dry, and liable to crack, or the fats, from which the soap is made, are not properly combined with the alkali, so, from its greasy nature it is impossible to rinse off the soap after washing. Prof. Leeds, Ph. D., Stevens Institution of Technology, says: "The Ivory SOAP, while strongly cleansing, leaves the skin soft and pleasant to the touch, instead of harsh, uncomfortable, and liable to chap."

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'lvory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfelts, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "lvory" Soap and insist upon getting it. Copyright 1886, by Procter & Gamble,

Land-Poor. From the Rural Sun.

BY ROBERT ROLLINS. How many thousands in the South can bear witness to the truth of the scattiments expressed in the following beautiful verses! All over our land beautiful verses! All over our land are found farmers who are poor from the weight they carry in land. Many a poor woman has spent her days and nights in toil and want because of the grasping disposition of her husband. It is poor economy for a farmer to tax the powers of a devoted wife beyond endurance in order to extend his acres to limits where they cease to be profitable. More of the sunshine of happiness would be secured in a farmer's home by keeped wife beyond endurance in order to extend his acres to limits where they cease to be profitable. More of the sunshine of happiness would be secured in a farmer's home by keep-ing free of debt and living in inde-pendence, than by grasping for pos-sessions that can only be obtained by a denial to his family of all the com-forts, enjoyment and social pleasures that go to make life itself endurable. A man always on his strain grows

The serial story "Genevieve" is continued, and Fannie Aymar Mathews contributes a tender short story, "Dorothy's Wooing." The usus departments are full of interest, and Mr. Messi ter, organist of Trinity Church, New York, has a vigorous hymn-tune to Dean Plumptre's "Rejoice, ye Pure in Heart." There are many short articles and poems, and some beauti-ful full-page illustrations. Hereditary,

My father died of cancer, and the same trouble developed near my right eye in 1883. It was at first a strawberry color, but changed to pur-ple, and grew to the size of a partraige egg. My right eye became much in flamed, and the dreadful disease wa rapidly wasting my life away. I u quite a number of remedie, but with-out benefit. At this crisis I began taking Swift's Specific. The im-provement was apparent in a few lays, and I continued to use until the days, and I continued to use until the Cancer was entirely gone and my health fully restored, and I know that S. S.
